

Chris (DOB 04/17/04)

Chris is a small framed child who enjoys sports especially football and baseball. He is currently playing junior high football and is doing well in this sport. When he is not playing sports he loves video games and watching TV. Chris is a laid back child who has some trouble attaching, but once he gets comfortable with someone he forms a great bond with them.

Chris is an intelligent child and can get good grades when he applies himself at school. Chris is not on an Individual Education Plan.

Chris has a sister and an aunt and uncle that he keeps in contact with and it is important for him to maintain this relationship.

Chris is a compassionate young teen who needs lots of love and attention. Can you be the family to provide the direction and care he deserves?
